STOLEN CAR IS FOUND WRECKED ALONG HIGHWAY

State police today continued their investigation into a "stolen car accident" that occurred at 11:15 o'clock Wednesday night, but was not immediately reported to the officers.

Police said Millard Garman, 84 George St., Hanover, reported to Hanover police Wednesday that his car had been stolen.

At 11:15 o'clock that night an automobile ran off the road two miles east of Littlestown, damaging 75 feet of fence, a gate, and shrubbery at the property of Evan Kline, Littlestown R. 2, and demolishing the sedan.

Driver Disappeared

Two motorists headed in the opposite direction saw the crash, but by the time they had stopped their car, backed up to the scene and got out of their car, the operator of the crashed vehicle had disappeared.

A search was made, but no sign of the driver of the vehicle could be discovered. Thursday morning at 8:25 o'clock they called state police, who discovered the wrecked car was the one stolen from Garman.

Police estimated damage to Kline's property at $100. They set the amount of damage to the demolished Garman car at $250, the list price for the 1948 sedan.

14 CANDIDATES SEEK OFFICE IN ARENDTSTVILLE

Arendtville residents will have an almost full slate of candidates from which to select when they vote in the primaries in May.

A full complement of candidates, with one exception, have been filed with the county election board for both the Republican and Democratic tickets in Arendtville.

The Democrats filed petitions for these candidates this morning: Otho D. Carey, judge of elections; Elliott Schlosser, inspector of elections; Herbert W. Cluck, constable; Arthur Deardorff and Charles Cuthall, council; Clyde Allison, auditor, and Paul Hartman, school director.

Republican Ticket

At the same time the Republicans filed as their candidates: W. Herbert Orner, judge of elections; H. E. Heckenluber, inspector of elections; Charles Arendt, constable; Walter Frederick and Glenn Hoke, council; Robert Heckenluber, auditor, and J. Charles Bushey, school director.

In each instance there is only one candidate for school director while all other positions on the primary ballot are filled. It was not known whether the parties intended that result or not. Each party, according to the primary election notice, is to name two candidates for school director in Arendtville.

Among other petitions for places on the ballot filed today was that of C. Warren Baugher for county commissioner on the Democratic ticket.

TWO CONVICTED ON ARSON COUNT IN FREDERICK

Two 19-year-old Emmitsburg R. 2 youths who had admitted setting two barn fires near Emmitsburg and then repudiated their confessions were convicted on one count of arson Thursday in Frederick County Court and acquitted on a second similar charge.

The pair, Charles Henry Bollinger, son of a neighbor of Roy Franklin Valentine whose barn was lost by fire late in 1954, and Paul Edward Creager, a farm hand on the Bollinger farm, are being held for pre-sentence investigation in Frederick. Their attorney has announced he will take an appeal from Thursday's guilty verdict.

The youths were convicted of setting fire to the Valentine barn about two miles north of Rocky Ridge last December 16. They were acquitted of setting a fire on the Valentine property on November 29.

Confessions Read At Trial

The two had entered pleas of "not guilty" to the arson cases and both had repudiated confessions police said they made at the time of their arrest late in December. The confessions that the pair had made at that time however were introduced in Thursday's trial over the objection of defense counsel.

Read into the record by Maryland State Trooper Harold L. Basore, of Frederick, who brought the charges against the pair, one confession stated that Bollinger had resented "uprightness" on the part of Valentine and said Valentine had accused Bollinger's father of "making liquor and stealing chickens." In the confession Valentine had said his father "didn't" never have enough nerve to do anything about it, but I did."

The confession said Bollinger had tossed a pint of gasoline into the Valentine barn to start the December fire and Creager had ignited it with a match. The earlier blaze also was covered in the statements made by the pair at the time of their arrest. Defense counsel held that the state had not proved arson and that a (Continued On Page 2)

Police and firemen were swamped with emergency calls in the Pittsburgh area. First reports said one television station tower was knocked down and one radio station was forced off the air.

In a special warning, the U.S. Weather Bureau said both southwestern and northwestern Pennsylvania were likely to be hit by tornadoes.

JAYCEES WILL TAKE PART IN TOWN CLEANUP

The Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday night voted to again participate in the annual "Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up" campaign here. As a result the drive will be carried on jointly by the Jaycees, borough Health Board, the Gettysburg Fire Department, and borough workmen.

The Jaycees will promote interest in the clean-up campaign in various ways. No final plans were made Thursday. Last year the Jaycees enlisted the services of a Gettysburg High School band to serenade sections of the town prior to the arrival of the borough trucks to pick up debris deposited in the alleys. Some similar type of promotion will be held this year.

Firemen will promote the clean-up drive from a fire prevention angle, the Jaycees were told.

Candidate For Governor

All members of the Junior Chamber were urged to attend the district meeting March 22 at the Red Lion VFW Home. Donald Becker, president, is a candidate for district governor.

Plans were discussed for attendance at a charter night meeting of the Chambersburg Junior Chamber April 13. The local club organized the Chambersburg group. Nomination of officers took place at Thursday's session. The election will be held at the March 24 meeting.

Donald Cordell reported the town-wide "committee to investigate comic books and other influences on youth" has been selected. Each organization asked to name a representative to the committee has made its selection, Cordell said. An organization meeting will be held in the near future.

Cordell also presented a classification talk on the duties of morticians. He is employed by the Bender Funeral Home.

Twenty attended the session held at the engine house. President Becker presided.

CURRICULUM IS DISCUSSED FOR SCHOOL BOARDS

The prediction that directors may be more sympathetic of school administrators' problems and the hope that directors may come up with some ideas for curriculum improvement were expressed as the second "School for school directors" closed Thursday evening at the New Oxford Elementary School Building.

"Curriculum" was the subject for the session with Palmer E. Poff, president of the West York Junior-Senior High School, as the speaker and two Adams County educators as panel consultants. They were Elmer M. Gruver, supervising principal of the Conewago Joint School District, and Leslie V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams Jointure.

In his opening half-hour talk, Mr. Poff defined curriculum this way: "The curriculum may be interpreted as all of the experiences which are made available to the pupils under the direction of the school. It is the sum total of all phases of school life. It includes not only the studies of the individual pupil but also all of his experiences as a member of the school community." He added that while it is basically a program of studies, it includes the pupil activity program and guidance services.

"Toughest Problem" In the discussion that followed, English or grammar was named as one of the subjects in which modern schools fall short in their teaching program. One schoolman suggested that the inability of many pupils to write creatively is due to the wide use of objective tests, using multiple choice, true and (Continued On Page 4)

THEY MADE A PROMISE

(Girl Scout Week)
One day you looked up . . . and there stood your baby girl, straight and serious-faced, in a uniform. And suddenly you realized that she wasn't your baby girl any more . . . that you had played her horse for her in a long time . . . and you couldn't remember when you last carried her up the wooden hill to bed.

"I'm a Brownie Scout, Daddy!" she said. "See my pin, and look, this shows I belong to Troop 16, and I made a promise to love God and my Country and to help others, and we're going to take hikes, and today Miss Abby showed us how to make things with clay, and when I'm ten I'll get to be a real Girl Scout, and, and, and . . ."

When she had finally run out of breath you smiled, perhaps too indulgently, made an appropriate remark, and went back to reading your paper.

But that evening you noticed Mother had help carrying the dishes out to the kitchen. And Saturday morning a certain young lady made her bed without being told. And when you'd planned going up to the mountains over a holiday weekend, you were informed that it was (Continued On Page 8)

NEW AUXILIARY ENCOURAGED BY COUNTY PASTOR

The Cumberland County Home Auxiliary was formed "as a direct result of encouragement given by the Adams County Home Auxiliary." Mrs. H. G. Knox, president of the Claremont Farm Auxiliary, Carlisle, told the Adams County unit at its meeting Thursday afternoon at the county home here.

Mrs. Knox explained, "The Adams County organization has been a great inspiration to us. Fred Hughes, farm management specialist from Pennsylvania State College, was introduced by County Farm Agent Frank S. Zettie. Hughes told the group: "We must figure that we are in a normal price situation today. That means we are going to have to produce more efficiently if we are to stay in business. We have learned many new techniques as farmers, but many, as we are practicing them, are simply making our work easier without increasing the production of the farm proportion." Must Watch Pennies "Farming has become big business. We must keep books. We must be accountants, if we are going to stay in business. We will have to know whether the extra fertilizer pays off in sufficient increase in yield to warrant the added expense. We must know whether the new hybrid is suitable for our farm. We shall have to do just what any other businessman must do — watch the pennies. Whether we like it or not we have reached the point where we must produce efficiently, and buy and sell efficiently or go out of farming."

George Glenn, vocational agriculture teacher at Gettysburg High School; Glenn Zepp, Gettysburg R. 4, and Glenn Bentzel, New Oxford R. 2, presented a report on the Youth program held at the American Institute of Cooperation at Cornell University last summer. The three attended the session under sponsorship of the Adams County Farm Bureau Cooperative. More than 3,000 attended the sessions at which the operation of cooperatives was studied.

The Pennsylvania Farm Bureau male chorus presented several selections. President C. J. Waybright welcomed the more than 300 present for the session and Clifford Blesacker gave the nominating committee report. John Schwartz was chairman of the resolutions committee. Resolutions expressing appreciation of the cooperative to school officials, the chorus and the management of the cooperative were passed by the group.

Radioactive Cloud Covers This Area

Gettysburg and central Pennsylvania were covered by a radioactive cloud Thursday afternoon and evening, but there was no danger. A weather bureau spokesman said that "very little, if any, radioactive fallout" would result. Most of it had left by this morning.

The cloud was impregnated with atomic particles by the giant test explosion Monday in Nevada, and had just reached this area. It was about two miles high, and stretched from the New Jersey coast as far west as Nebraska.

A faster-moving radioactive cloud had previously passed over this area on Tuesday, and proceeded past, out over the ocean, according to the weather bureau.

NEW GROUP TO SEEK WORK FOR HANDICAPPED

Formation of a special committee to aid handicapped persons in obtaining jobs was effected by the Adams County Committee for the Employment of the Physically Handicapped Thursday afternoon.

At a meeting held in the local Pennsylvania State Employment Service office a group comprising Robert E. Berkeimer, of the Gettysburg Throwing Co.; Roland J. Bourdeau, personnel manager at the Inductive Equipment plant; Lawrence Cummins, manager of the PSES office; Miss Mildred Hess, employment counselor; Mrs. Verna Myers, Adams County Assistant director, and Arthur J. Roth, secretary of the county EPH committee, met for the first of what is planned as a series of monthly conferences to which representatives of veterans, industry and the Bureau of Rehabilitation will be invited.

At each monthly session, the committee plans to consider "two or three" of the unemployed physically handicapped in the county to determine whether they should receive rehabilitation training from the state, or, if they are ready for employment, attempt to seek jobs for them.

62 Handicapped In County
 Cummins said there are 62 handicapped persons seeking employment in the county at the present time. Of that number he said, about 20 are men who had been employed for years despite physical handicaps, but are currently unemployed. Another 20 are women who ordinarily work in processing plants during the season. The remainder are those who "will be the basis of our work," Cummins said.

Cummins said bureau of rehabilitation funds are available "for operations, for education, for every necessity to turn a physically handicapped person into an employable individual. Experience of the Bureau of Rehabilitation has shown that it costs an average of $54 to fit a person for employment. Public assistance outlays for the same person would be many times that amount each year," he added.

Drinking Water Is Safe
 Discussing the problem of "fall out" from hydrogen bombs, Dr. Gerstel said, "you need not worry about water supply contamination from fall-out. The radioactive particles cling to mud and the slime in pipes. Where the water goes through a purification system such as the filters used by cities for their water supply, there is no danger of contamination in the water that comes out of the faucet in the home. However the operator of the filter plant will have difficulties because the radioactive particles will remain there."

Attending the meeting from Adams County were William G. Weaver, County Civil Defense director; Charles W. Culp Jr., county auxiliary police chief; Dr. Frank T. Watson, Boy Scout commissioner; Robert Fryling, representing Gettysburg College, all of Gettysburg; John Murren, county C-D fire chief; Eugene Murren, past president of the county fire chiefs association, both of Hanover R. 4; Harry Pasick, York Springs, deputy county Civil Defense director and Donald Kemper, assistant chief of the York Spring Fire Department.

Each time we say good night dear . . . and I go on my way . . . it isn't very long before . . . my heart feels sad dismay . . . for when I leave you, darling . . . I leave my happiness . . . and, strangely, I feel all alone . . . without your fond caress . . . of course I know it won't be long . . . until we meet again . . . but nonetheless when I depart . . . I leave my joyful glen . . . when I'm away from you, my love . . . there hangs a veil of gloom . . . that will not lift until I see . . . your smile burst into bloom . . . I hope that not too far away . . . I'll hear you say I do . . . then each goodnight will only bring . . . me nearer still to you.

Pot Luck

It's not spring yet!!! Although spring doesn't officially start until March 21, folks in Littlestown sure do have that certain fever. Work just doesn't appear appetizing and conversation falls into the category of fishing, boats, baseball and (perish the thought) spring housecleaning. . . .

Lions Club Show a terrific success!!! Everything was perfect and you should have enjoyed it. . . .

But you should have been around the week before the show! Things were really popping in Marvin's. Chester Byers and Marvin were looking high and low for a judge. Seems as if the one they had lined up, couldn't make it! More fun. . . .

Al Bair and Ray Harner, so tired from working, crept in the of magazines to the guests. Mrs. Mervin Murray was authorized to purchase four lawn benches for the home. Purchase of a toaster for the men's building was authorized. Mrs. Sewell Kapp displayed and sold needlework articles made by the guests.

The annual "Visiting Day" at the home will be held June 25. Additional volunteers for the sewing committee were asked. Under a program set up Thursday women will volunteer their services back door at Marvin's at noon, to express their views on the subject. Said Al, "Why don't they get Lou Ann Simms as a judge for the contest?"

Baxter Ward gave the show a plug on his late program Wednesday evening. Did you hear it? Snook Unger, in front of her TV set, sighed and said, "Imagine that coming to Littlestown."

Littlestown Girl Scouts close their week of celebration Saturday morning at Gettysburg when they held a big party with the other scouts of the county. Girl Scouts were organized by Juliette Low in Savannah, Georgia, March 12, 1912. The purpose of this group is to help girls realize the ideals of womanhood, as a preparation for their responsibilities in the home and service to the community.

Its aim is to give girls, through natural wholesome pleasures, habits of mind and body which will make them useful, responsible women. It favors no creed, party or sect, but cooperates with any organization which shares its views or the influence for good which may be exercised by women in the home and in religious, social and civic affairs.

So moms and pops, if you have a daughter between the ages of 10 and 18, talk to one of the troop leaders about having her join this worthy organization. . . . Don't forget to wear green Thursday — it's St. Patrick's Day — libb each Wednesday to assist with the sewing project. Sufficient volunteers have been secured for the Wednesdays this month. No Wednesday sessions will be held in April because that is "housecleaning month" at the home.

English Liner, Fastest Afloat, Ends
Dash Across Atlantic: New York, March 7 (AP)—With the "Red

at her mast, Britain's new $28-750,000 liner Queen Elizabeth—the largest, fastest ship afloat—arrived within the safety of New York harbor waters today at the end of her

Painted a drab gray, the 85,000-ton liner passed Ambrose lightship headed toward The Narrows, past winter-deserted Coney Island, with the skyline of New York 20 miles distant.

The bluish-gray coat of the vessel, unrelieved by a single note of color, blended into the haze over the harbor.
She looked like a ghost ship as she reached quarantine and dropped anchor.

Today's Talk

RETURNS

It is interesting, and speculative, to return to a place where we were once known and happy with our friends — but if we have been absent too long we are apt to run into a loneliness that we did not count upon, for many a friend with whom we were once gay and active we sadly miss, and it's these "misses" we run into that leave us so alone and lonely in the places to which we return from time to time.

For years I looked upon Miami, Florida, as my second home. During a period of many years I accompanied with a group of friends whom I greatly enjoyed, but now as I return I feel lost for so many of my former friends have gone on or have failed to return. One only had to have a friend like Johnny Gruelle as an example, creator of "Raggy Ann," the doll with a heart, for he was always doing kind things to make people happy. And what an artist he was in so many ways. His newspaper drawings delighted thousands, and he was a genius with all sorts of musical instruments from the pipe organ to the violin.

That's the sad thing about returning to a former haunt — so many of your friends have gone, and they didn't leave a forwarding address! I miss so many of my newspaper friends. But there still remains the same sunshine, the clean sand, washed by the constant beating of the ocean waves, the whispering of the coconut and palm trees, the glorious songs of the mocking birds, the matchless sunsets, and Miami's sweet-melting springtime.

Perhaps we ought to live more with our memories and thank God that they never seem to fade out but grow in luster with the years. When you tuck people away in your heart they live a long time!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Start Is Everything."

ASKING HER FATHER

You will have to ask my father.
There is really nothing to it." She insisted very firmly so I promised her I'd do it. But I thought the matter over ere I started on the mission and decided I might please him with a business proposition.

So I tackled him one evening when nobody else was present. And a good cigar I gave him to make sure he would be pleased. Then while my cigar he puffed on, not intending to be funny, I asked this simple question:
"Would you like to save some money?"

"Yes," said he, and then I told him:
"Well that's what I pave the way for."
All your daughter's gowns and bonnets in the future I will pay for.

You have bought her shoes and stockings twenty years. You can't deny it. Say the word, and what she asks for you'll no longer have to buy it.

"If you'll let us plan our wedding
I am sure you won't regret it."

When she has to have a hair-do I'll provide the cash to get it." And he puffed and smiled and told me: "Son, your offer I am taking."

But I think I ought to warn you that's a costly deal you're making."

GOP WANTS IKE TO RUN AGAIN; Foe Fears Him

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Political squabbling over the state of the First Lady's health pointed up today that many Republicans want President Eisenhower to run in 1956 while some Democrats may hope he won't.

Republicans attack and Democrats defended the latest statement yesterday by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler on an issue that exploded in Congress with GOP cries of "smear" and "slandering."

Butler said there had been "published reports . . . Mrs. Eisenhower has not been in robust health, that her strength has been taxed by her official duties and that her mother does not want her to live in the White House for another four years."

Butler said that "if these reports are true, I would think they would exert some influence on her husband" when he decides whether he will seek a second term.

Democrats fear Ike. Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said Butler's statement "shows clearly that Mr. Butler and his party don't want the President to be a candidate because they think he will win and the wish is father to the thought he won't run."

Sen. Kuchel (R-Calif.) said in a separate interview that vigorous GOP reaction in the Senate and House yesterday to Butler's suggestion demonstrated Republicans believe Eisenhower would be re-elected "and they want him to be a candidate."

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said he found "nothing insulting" in Butler's statement. "I doubt if the whole incident has much significance," he said. "Heaven knows we all hope the President and all of the members of his family enjoy the best of health."

Eisenhower himself went to Walter Reed Army Hospital yesterday to begin a new series of treatments for bursitis in his right shoulder which has troubled him occasionally for years. Mrs. Eisenhower was reported "much improved" in a bout with a cold or mild influenza. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said that, except for that attack, her health is fine.

APPROPRIATION MEASURE SENT TO HOUSE TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first appropriation bill of 1955 went to the House floor today, cut by 2.3 per cent from President Eisenhower's money requests.

Accompanying it was a veiled slap at Postmaster General Summerfield, who was told his department's first duty is to see that the mails are handled speedily.

The bill carries $3,282,553,000 to finance the Treasury and Post Office departments, including the Internal Revenue Service, for the fiscal year starting next July 1. This is $77,697,000 less than the President requested for the agencies. Cuts included $69,117,000 for the Post Office and $8,580,000 for the Treasury. Compared with appropriations for the current year, the Post Office Department was cut $69,177,000 and the Treasury Department was increased $5,862,400.

Start Debate Monday
The House will start debating the bill Monday. It generally follows closely the recommendations of its Appropriations Committee, which wrote the bill.

Treasury money in the bill does not include interest payments on the national debt or distribution of social security funds.

A report on the bill drafted by Rep. Gary (D-Va.) did not name Summerfield specifically, but it declared: "There is some evidence that the top management of the (post office) department has become so enamored of the decentralization process that the grass-roots functions of the department have been overlooked."

"Regardless of the problems of administration involved, it is the primary duty of the department to ensure that the mails are handled expeditiously. Perhaps the problems and complaints of the local postmaster may seem minuscule, but their prompt disposition is a 'must.'"

The committee voted the Post Office Department $2,685,700,000. In recommending $555,818,000 for the Treasury, the committee approved the entire $41,200,000 requested by the Customs Bureau and $278,500,000 of the $286,000,000 sought by the Internal Revenue Service.

COMMUNISTS SHELL QUEMOY

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Communists today fired 52 shells at the Nationalist Chinese island of Quemoy, the Defense Ministry announced.

The ministry did not say whether the defenders returned the fire. During the day Premier O. K. Yui declared the Nationalists are determined to fight for both Quemoy and the Matsu group, with or without American support.

The Communist barrage was poured onto Quemoy and one of the Tan Islands 2½ miles south from three nearby Red islands in Amoy Bay in a 25 minute period beginning at 2 p.m. The shells came from Tateng, Chingyu and Chiao-yu. The communiqué said there were no casualties or damage. While minor, the action was the heaviest by the Reds in two weeks.

Bullets' Bill Snyder Wins Honorable Mention On AP's All-State Championship Five

Bill Snyder, who smashed all Gettysburg College scoring records during the past basketball season, gained an honorable mention in the All-State selections announced today by the Associated Press.

Four members of the two top teams chosen played against the Bullets during the campaign. They include: Maurice Stokes, St. Francis, Pa., and Jesse Arnette, Penn State, both of whom were named to the first team, and Jim Radcliffe, Lafayette, and Howie Landa, Lebanon Valley, who gained second team honors.

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tom Gola, Dick Ricketts, St. Green, Maurice Stokes and Jesse Arnette today are the finest college basketball players in Pennsylvania for 1955, a year in which court talent in the keystone state was conspicuous by its abundance.

Sportswriters and broadcasters indicated in their ballots that this 1955 Associated Press All-State team is the finest in the history of the annual poll. The voters grouped a team which averages 6.5 in height, 215 in weight, scores at a combined 115 points a game and picks off 100 rebounds per contest.

Despite the fact that this quintet could easily be endorsed as an All-America team, the voting margin of its members over several second team choices was close.

Schafer On Second Team
Villanova's Bob Schafer, like Gola, Arnette and Stokes, a member of the 2,000 points scoring club, heads a second team which includes Penn's star scorer and rebounder, Bart Leach; Lafayette's Jim Radcliffe, spark of the Leopards' NIT tourney team; Lebanon Valley's Howie Landa, the state's highest scoring Ed Pavlick. In any other year, this second team could easily have been the first honor five without any hesitation.

Gola and Ricketts were named to the AP All-America, while Green earned a second team berth and Stokes a third team nomination. Gola, Arnette, Stokes and Schafer each scored more than 2,000 points with Ricketts 101 points short of the charmed circle.

It is doubtful any other section of the country produced five players with a combined career total to match the Keystone All-Stars. All Tournament-Bound
It is interesting to note that all of the teams represented on the Gola's La Salle team will defend its NCAA crown; Duquesne and St. Francis are in the NIT, and Penn State is an NCAA challenger.

Gola was the only unanimous choice for the first team. The three-time All-America is rated among the all-time basketball greats.

Ricketts, a senior, and Green, a junior, are considered the best two men on any one team in the nation. The 6-7 Ricketts, of Pottstown, has scored 1,899 points in his Duquesne career, highest in the university's history. Green, a 6-2 junior who rebounds like a man five inches taller, isn't far behind his teammate. Some think Green will be another Gola before he's through.

Broke State's Records
Arnette broke every Penn State scoring record and has been the spark for two straight State NCAA teams. Stokes, 6-5 senior, has led little St. Francis of Loretto, to the NIT again this year, scoring 595 points, averaging 25.9 a game.

Honorable mention—Conrad, Albright; Crossan, Indiana; Connor, Dickinson; Mike DePaul, Albright; Devine, Villanova; Dickerson, Temple; Fallon, St. Joseph's; Fielder, Carnegie Tech; Cleckner, Lehigh; German, East Stroudsburg; Gall, Muhlenberg; Godfrey, W & J; Handzelak, Juniata; Hoffman, Penn State; Hesch, Gannon; Kalizak, Alliance; Lewis, La Salle; Lear, Temple; Peters, Lafayette; James Parker, Cheyney; John Parker, Millersville; Silcox, Temple; Smith, Villanova; Sturgis, Penn; Shover, Lebanon Valley; Snyder, Gettysburg; Werksler, Millersville; Weidenhammer, Penn State; Winograd, Duquesne.

Duplicate Crashes Occur In Colorado

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Two identical rear-end collisions occurred at the same spot near here within 99 minutes. In the first, police reported Norman L. Shipman's car collided with the rear end of one driven by Albert Hallum, 21, less than an hour and a half later an identical accident happened at the same spot, involving 20-year old Alfred Lee Staddard and John P. Lescoe, 22. All four men are Ft. Carson, Colo., soldiers.

FOUR UNKNOWN ON THE MOUND CHEER STANKEY

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Larry Jackson, Floyd Woolridge, George Schultz and Herb Moford may not be names you'll find in a kid's autograph book, but you can bet the rent money they lured Eddie Stankey into a nice restful sleep last night.

Not that Stankey hasn't been sleeping well of nights, but after what those four right-handers did to the New York Yankees yesterday the St. Louis Cardinals manager must have dozed right off. The four unknowns clamped down on the Bombers and gave up just a sheepish infield single while the Cards were battling out a 7-0 decision. The Yanks managed to get only five balls out of the infield, all easy flies.

Turley Is Clubbed

Bob Turley, the young right-hander the Orioles traded off to the Yankees much to the disappointment of Baltimore fans, was clubbed for five runs in the second inning and two in the third.

Bullet Bob is the guy who's supposed to bring the American League pennant to the Yankees. The four Card newcomers weren't the only hurlers who got off to a good start, but there weren't many more.

Boston slammed 12 hits and Washington 10 in a game won by the Red Sox 6-3. Cincinnati and the Chicago White Sox stroked the same number as the Pale Hose won 10-7. Pittsburgh got 15 and the New Kansas City Athletics led the Pirates won 9-8 in 10 innings; and the Chicago Cubs out-hit Cleveland 15-0 but lost 9-7.

1st Win For Mayo Smith
The only other pitching performance popped up as Brooklyn caught up with Milwaukee 3-2 in a night game and Philadelphia beat Detroit 4-2.

Robin Roberts fanned the side after a leadoff triple in the first, and although the Tigers got a 2-1 lead against him and Herm Wehrmeister, Willie Jones dumped a bases-loaded double in the eighth to give new Manager Mayo Smith his first victory.

Pinky Higgins, the new Red Sox manager, also got off on the right foot with Ted Lepcio and Milt Bolling giving him a push. Lepcio had three hits, including a homer, and Bolling had three runs batted in.

Bill Meyer Saves Tribe
The Brooks got some help from rookies and Sandy Amoroso, still trying to make the grade in the outfield. Don Zimmer tied it with a two-run homer and Charlie Neal tripled to score the winning run on Amoroso's single.

Shortstop Dick Groat, back from the army, broke up the game for Pittsburgh, dropping a single to score the winning run against the A's.

Rockie Bill Meyer stepped in to save the Indians after the Cubs got to Bob Hooper for four runs in the ninth.

Minnie Minozo grand-slammed for the White Sox. The Redlegs, who used six pitchers without much effect, were charged with eight errors.

TWO DISTRICTS CONTINUE PIAA CAGE PLAYOFFS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Final rounds of PIAA basketball playoffs continue tonight in two districts with Allentown meeting Palmerton and Johnstown facing Altoona for Class A crowns.

The Allentown-Palmerton clash, for the Dist. 11 title, will be played at Hershey. Allentown entered the final round by whipping Wilson Boro last Friday 84-40 while Palmerton trounced St. Clair 84-55 last Tuesday.

The Altoona-Johnstown clash at Johnstown War Memorial Arena will decide the Dist. 6 title. Johnstown whipped Lewistown 66-45 in the semifinals while Altoona defeated State College 66-50.

Meanwhile, the game of the year shaped up in western Pennsylvania after McKeesport won its semifinal Dist. 7 match and the right to meet Farrell for the district title.

McKeesport, heralded as a prime prospect to take the crown in early season ratings, whipped a good Greensburg squad 74-53 last night at Pitt Field House in Pittsburgh.

Meet Farrell Wednesday
The suburban Pittsburghers will meet Farrell, 1954 state champion, for the WPIAL title March 16.

At the same time, Erie Strong Vincent grabbed the Dist. 10 title by downing Sharpville 75-56. The crown was the first won by the Erie team since 1936.

Erie will meet Pittsburgh South Hills, Dist. 8 winners, in the first round of the western regional state tournament next Tuesday night.

In other games last night, Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain set a new state scoring record in leading his Philadelphia Overbrook team to the city championship—83-42 over West Philadelphia Catholic.

Chamberlain poured in 35 points to boost his three-year high school total to 2,252. The "old" state mark of 2,227 was set only this week by Don Hennon of Wampum High School in Western Pennsylvania. Hennon, whose team is still in the Class B running, has a chance to pass Chamberlain's new record.

Six Titles Decided
West Philadelphia beat La Salle 70-52 for the Philadelphia championship consolation.

To date, championships in six districts have been decided. The Class A status of the districts today:

Dist. 1—Chester vs Lansdowne Monday for the title.

Former Diplomat Coach, Trainer Dies

LANCASTER—Joseph A. McGeever, 61, former trainer of the Philadelphia Eagles football team, died Thursday.

McGeever, long active in sports circles, was trainer and coach of Franklin and Marshall College for 13 years until 1932, coaching some of the baseball and basketball teams, freshman football and freshman basketball.

He became trainer of the Philadelphia professional football team in 1936 and served in that capacity for several years.

FRANKIE RYFF, PEREZ TONIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten Frankie Ryff, regarded as one of the best lightweight prospects in years, reaches a crossroad in his career against Danny Joe Perez tonight.

Making his first start since he suffered severe cuts over his eyes outpointing Orlando Zulueta last December, Ryff's performance against his New York rival will be watched closely. If the wounds are reopened, demonstrating that he cuts easily, it may be that his fight future will be dim.

Nevertheless, the 23-year-old Frankie, the 1954 rookie of the year, is rated a 5 to 2 favorite for the 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. The bout, starting at 10 p.m., will be nationally televised and broadcast by NBC.

Perez has a 16-3-1 record compared to Ryff's 16-0-0.

Two judges and a referee will judge the fight on a round basis. A supplementary point basis, with points awarded from 1 to 4 for a round, will be used to avoid a draw.

SP Delays Forming Of Umpires' Group

A final decision on the proposed organization of an umpires' association to handle South Penn Baseball League games during the coming season will be made at a league meeting Thursday, March 24. It was decided Thursday evening at a meeting at the American Legion Home.

No umpires turned up at Thursday's meeting although it was reported a number are interested in the proposed association.

Bob Krichen, Hanover, vice president, presided with all teams being represented with the exception of Greentown. President Norbert Felix was present but delayed taking over his duties until the next meeting.

GROAT STICKS WITH BASEBALL

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Torn between two sports careers—pro baseball and pro basketball—Dick Groat plans to stick with baseball if he has a good year at shortstop with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The basketball All American, who jumped from the campus of Duke University to the majors in 1952, is back with the Pirates after two years in the Army. He turned down a winter of basketball with the Fort Wayne Pistons of the NBA to give baseball "the big try."

"This will be the first time I've ever started a baseball season, fresh and ready," he said at the Pirates' training camp. "Always before I had just been through a strenuous basketball season. I want to find out for myself if it really makes any difference."

Although Groat is all wrapped up in his baseball career, he is curious to know how he would go in a full season with the Pistons. In the winter of 1952, Fort Wayne flew him to and from the Duke campus to play several games and he averaged 13 points per game. He realizes that his best chances of a financial stake for the future is in baseball.

Groat had a .284 average for 95 games with the Pirates in 1952.

SMU Meets Bradley
The survivor of the double-header at Manhattan almost certainly will wear a "dark horse" label in the championship finals. The top entry, based on the Associated Press poll, is 15th-ranked Colorado (16-5), the Big Seven champion. The Buffaloes meet 16th-rated Tulsa (20-6), co-titler of the Missouri Valley Conference.

The other game sends Southern Methodist (16-7, Southwest Conference champion, against the unbeaten Bradley (8-19), runner-up to La Salle last year. But fans point out that Bradley also was lightly regarded last year yet moved into the finals.

EASTERN MAT TOURNAMENT OPENS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Wrestlers from 16 colleges and universities went through preliminary stages today of the two-day 51st annual Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling championships.

Seeds and drawings were to be held this morning following preliminary matches. The semi-finals are set for Saturday afternoon with the title bouts that night.

Pitt, the top team in the east, loomed as the squad to beat with three unbeaten entries leading its bid to recapture the eastern honors it won last year on its first try.

Joe Solomon, national collegiate titleholder, heads the Pitt squad at 177 pounds, where he's unbeaten in 11 starts this year. Solomon was the NCAA 167-pound titlist.

Pitt's other undefeated wrestlers, Ed Peery and Ed Dewitt, will compete at 130 and 157 pounds. Each has nine straight wins.

Nebraska County Is Clipped By Speeder

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—A $24 assessment in a speeding arrest faded to a 15 cent deficit for the county before the incident was closed.

A Wyoming resident arrested on a speeding charge mailed the $24 check along with a waiver of appearance and a plea of guilty in the presence of the arresting officer. But once back home, the accused speeder stopped payment on the check.

The matter became a deficit operation for the county here when a local bank levied a 15 cent handling charge on the stopped check.

NCAA TOURNEY RETURNING TO ACTION TONIGHT

By ORLO ROBERTSON

The Associated Press

The NCAA Basketball Tournament swings back into action on four regional fronts tonight with La Salle's defending champions in sight of a record-tying performance, highly regarded Kentucky certain to break its own scoring mark and No. 1 ranked San Francisco bucking a 15-year-old jinx.

Out of the play in the regional competition tonight and tomorrow at Philadelphia, Evanston, Ill., Corvallis, Ore., and Manhattan, Kan., will come the four winners for the semifinals and championship rounds at Kansas City March 18-19.

If La Salle, led by All America Tom Gola, gets past Princeton, Ivy League titleholder, at Philadelphia tonight and then beats the Canisius-Villanova winner in the regional final tomorrow night, the Explorers will tie the Oklahoma Aggies at eight for the greatest number of NCAA Tournament victories without a defeat.

Near 1,000 Mark
The Aggies won three in each of their 1945 and '46 championship years and captured two more in 1949 before losing to Kentucky in the finals. La Salle piled up five victories en route to the title last year and already has beaten West Virginia this year. Last year was the Explorers' first experience in the tournament.

The first point Kentucky scores against Marquette tonight at Evanston will be the 1,000th for the Wildcats in 16 games of NCAA championship play since 1942.

Iowa, Big Ten champion, tackles Penn State in the other half of the Evanston double-header. Penn State's attack is built around 6-6 Jesse Arnette.

Tough For Dons
At Corvallis, San Francisco will be trying to accomplish something no West Coast team has been able to do since Stanford won top honors in 1942. Since then not a West Coast five has reached the finals.

The Dons, headlined by All America Bill Russell, have lost only one game while piling up 23 wins. But they will be meeting a tough outfit in seven-ranked Utah (23-1), the Skyline champions.

Oregon State, presenting 7-3 Swede Halbrook as its No. 1 offensive threat, carries the banner of the Pacific Coast Conference against Seattle, a team the Beavers beat by five points without their star during the regular season.

Golf Group Names H. F. Miller President
HARRISBURG (AP)—H. Fred Miller, of Harrisburg, is the new president of the Central Pennsylvania Golf Assn. He succeeds Sidney A. Carson Jr., Carlisle.

At its annual meeting yesterday, the group also selected the Colonial Country Club, Harrisburg, as the site for its individual championship tournament.

The tourney will be held June 16-19 at Dick Burgoon, 17-year-old Carlisle school boy, defending the title. He was a finalist in the 1954 National Caddy Tournament at Columbus, Ohio, last year.

State Rep. Nolan F. Zeigler, Harrisburg, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the group.

In other business, the association dropped the Reading Country Club from its rolls at the request of the Berks County unit. Bon-Air Country Club of York was accepted to replace Reading.

Other tournament dates set were: Annual four-ball tournament Lebanon Country Club, Aug. 18-21; Pennsylvania Open, Hershey Country Club, June 13; York Outdoor Pro-amateur, Aug. 14; Lebanon Seniors, Sept. 22; and the Lebanon Four-ball Invitation, July 28-31.

Only 1 per cent of the students who concentrate on English, history or social sciences in college will go into careers in those fields, a study made at the University of Michigan indicates.

Ticket Sales Slow
A move was underway to sell 5,000 season tickets but Moors indicated sales were going very slow. Another club spokesman said it appeared very doubtful the goal could be reached in time to make a decision whether to remain in the league or put the franchise up for sale.

Although stands of dogwood are classed as splashes of beauty by many nature lovers, the trees are regarded as a pest by forestry experts.

He cited a $40,000 operating loss during the 1954 season and said he was tired of taking such a "financial licking."

PRAYER IN THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

Matthew 6:5-8; 7:7-11;
James 5:13-16

Key Verse: This is the confidence we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. I John 5:14.

Stated simply, prayer is communion with God. Through prayer the individual expresses his needs and desires to God, the Father. The relationship is that of a child of God with his Father in heaven, a very natural fellowship in which the individual believer adores, thanks, confesses, and petitions.

Generally prayers are spoken, for thoughts never grow into clearness unless shaped into words. Speaking to God and making thoughts known to Him shows a spirit of humble dependence and filial love. As one writer has said: "Prayer harmonizes our souls with God so that we grow calm and clear and begin to see things as He sees them, as a mountain lake when it is perfectly still reflects the blue sky and mirrors the full-orbed image of the sun. To a soul in such a state God can disclose His will, into it He can pour His Spirit, and through it and for it He can work out His purpose."

The question might be asked, How to approach God in prayer? Very simply, as in conversation. Every earnest Christian feels the need of prayer, the opportunity of seeking the truth. It is easier to pray in secret. And this assurance is given in Matthew 5:6, "And your Father Who sees in secret will reward you." This private sanctuary where the believing heart approaches God opens the path to God and provides spiritual power. The common prayer of public worship, then, is motivated by the private prayers of the congregation of Christian believers.

In the Sermon on the Mount our Lord contrasted the old and new ways, some of which apply to prayer and the practice of prayer. He warned against "hypocrites" who plan their prayers so that others will notice them and approve their extreme piety. Those who "heap up empty phrases" like the Gentiles are mentioned, too. The admonition follows: "Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him." Idle sentences do not bring the gift needed. Only when the individual seeks to learn God's will for him, will he receive the answer. "For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened."

Prayer should be addressed to God in the name of Christ Who washed our sins away with His blood. Jesus gave us a prayer pattern in the Lord's Prayer. In it we are taught to pray for ourselves, our fellow-Christians, for all men — rich and poor, friend and foe, the afflicted, the tempted. Later John states the doctrine of prayer (see Key Verse). At least we know "He heareth us." The habit of prayer should be encouraged constantly, or others in the family will not learn to come to their heavenly Father in times of danger, sorrow, or temptation. Regular family worship influences the lives of parents, children, and all who participate.

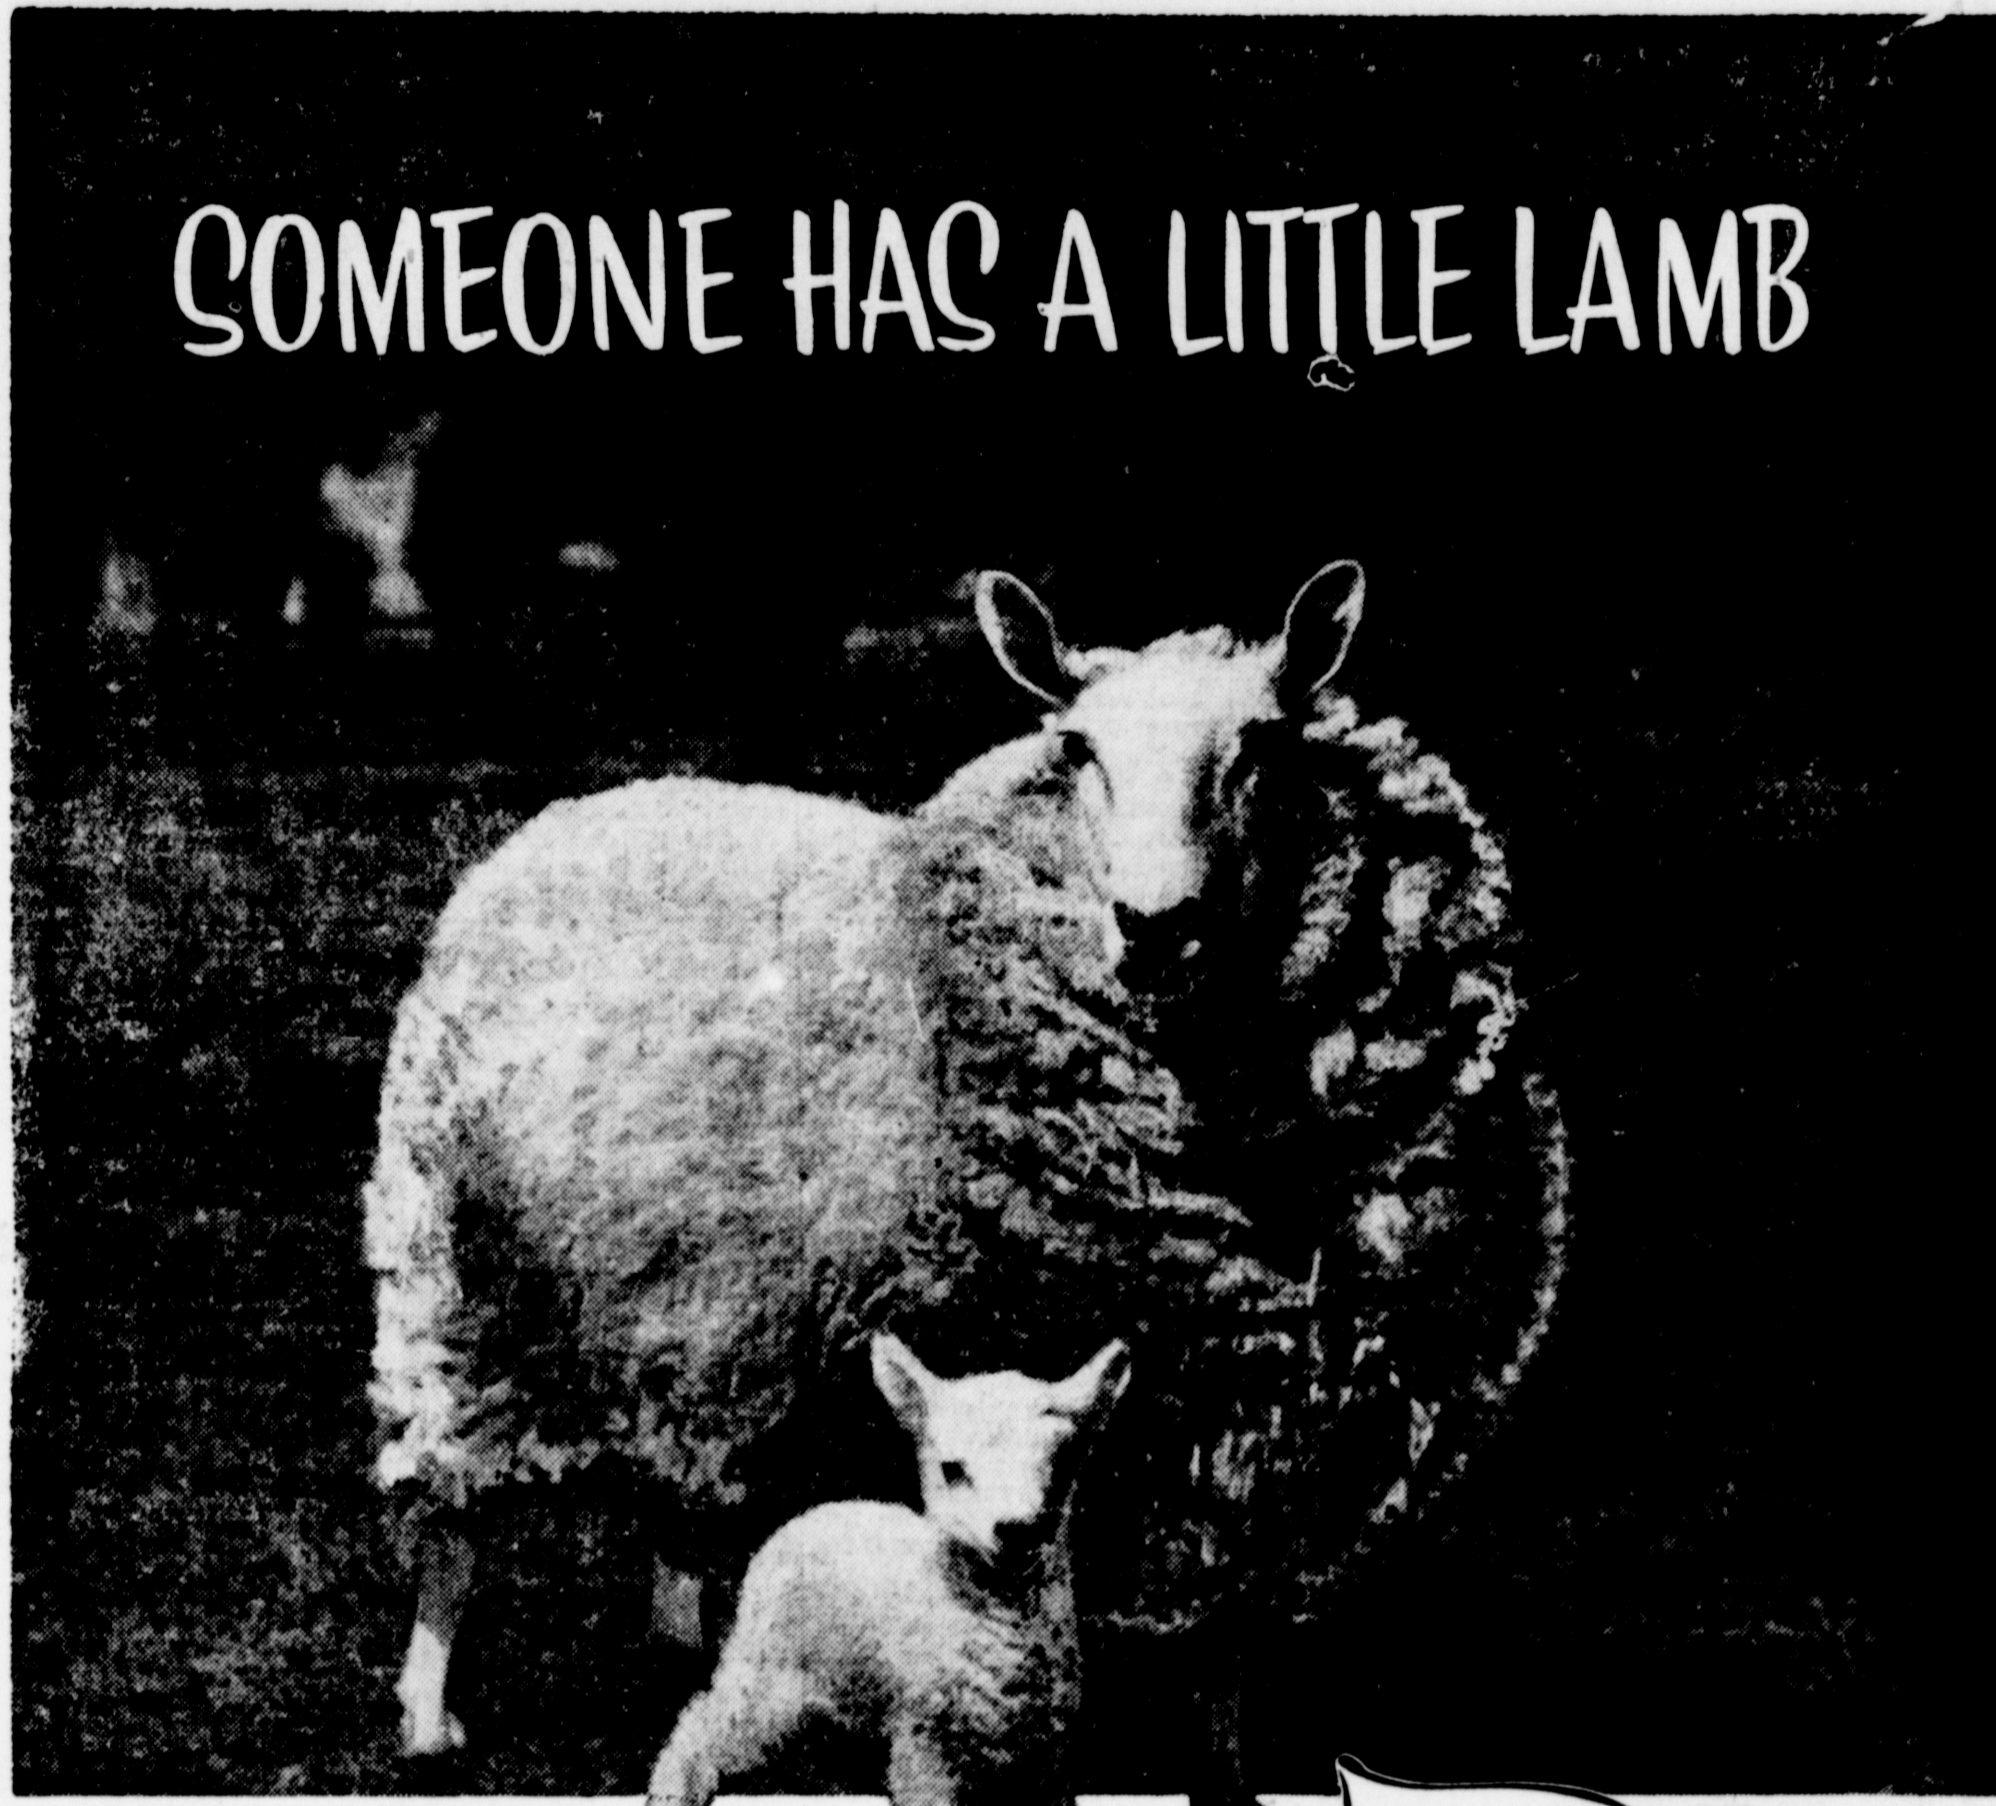

To be effective prayer must be sincere. God, in return, is attentive to every prayer offered to Him in the right spirit. How can we know that we are praying intelligently? Sometimes we know we pray for things that God cannot grant us. God frequently blesses His children best when He denies their requests. God will answer our prayers, but not always at the time or in the manner we expect.

Selfish, foolish petitions may go unanswered. Since the Christian life must be one of prayer, we must cultivate a deep, rich inner life. Only then will our outward actions be truly Christian or in harmony with God's will. Unless we undergird our lives with the constant practice of prayer, we will not be effective witnesses for Christ.

How Christian Science Heals
"A CHILD MADE FREE OF AFFLICTION" WGET (1450 kc.) Sunday 8:15 A.M.

Youngsters are always "cute" — whether they're the woolly type or the romper variety.

Youngsters are appealing because they are fascinating miniatures of the adult of the species. So tiny . . . yet they look, and soon begin to act, like smaller editions of the grown-ups.

That fact should make human parents deeply conscious of their responsibility. Their own example and influence, and their provision for the child's spiritual needs can make or mar a youngster's character.

Churches are the chief allies of conscientious parents. They provide consecrated Christian teachers, interesting graded lessons and the inspiring worshipful setting for a child's moral and spiritual training.

Will you help some church in this vital phase of its work? Will you attend and support the Church? Will you encourage parents you know to give their children the advantage of the Church's teaching ministry?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

To Send Girl To Keystone Camp

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, will sponsor a girl to attend Keystone Girl's Camp again this year. It was decided at the March meeting of the Auxiliary held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. J. Will, W. Myrtle St. A girl who is a member of the junior class at the Littlestown High School will be selected to attend the Keystone Camp. The name of the girl will be announced later.

Mrs. Ernest R. Senti, president, presided at the meeting and reported on the quarterly meeting of the Four-County Council held last week in Gettysburg. The group voted a contribution to the national president's project. A report from the community service chairman, Mrs. James W. Fager, was presented by Mrs. Charles Marker, secretary. The members were urged to support the S-2 bill which is being backed by the American Legion. There was a good response to the imaginary food sale held in connection with the meeting and members who still wish to make a contribution may do so.

Plans were made to attend the annual birthday observance and banquet of the Legion post to be held Legionnaires, their guests and auxiliary members and their guests on Monday evening, 6:30 p.m., in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed Church. It was decided to assist the post with refreshments to be served at the minstrel show.

U. Bowers, Kenneth Bortner, William Wherley and Edgar E. Yealy.

The business session was conducted by Fred Kaufman, president. The association voted to oppose the House bill 323, which opposes the sale of B-B guns. It was decided to purchase five pheasants for release.

Plans were made to hold two more shooting matches before the next season. The committee for the first match on Friday, March 18, is composed of Millard E. Basehoar Jr., chairman, Hadley W. Blocher, Ivan Miller, George Schaefer, Sterling Sell, W. E. Stites, Earl L. Stites and Ivan Arentz. The following committee will make arrangements for to be presented by the Legion on Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14, in the local high school auditorium. The next regular meeting of the auxiliary has been postponed one week due to the minstrel show, and will be held on Wednesday, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Noah C. Snyder, N. Queen St.

The March business session of the Alta Hummer Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran Church was held on Wednesday evening at the church following the Lenten worship service. Mrs. Allie Hollinger, leader, discussed the topic "The Bible and Missions." Readings were given by the members, after which the magazine quiz took place. The missionary benediction was repeated in unison.

more important that a Brownie "make bouquets for our soldier boys who got killed." You had a pang of conscience when it hit you that some of these "soldier boys" were your own buddies from B Company. And you helped with the flowers, too.

And so Girl Scouting had begun to work its own particular wonders in your home, as it has in so many others. You watched its quiet influence through the years. And your respect for it grew. And more than once you gave a mental "thanks" to the tireless people who make such an organization live.

Today in our country there are over a million and a half girls in Scouting. That's a good thing to know. A good thing to think about when you get to wondering about the future. A million and a half little girls, keeping a sober promise to love God and their Country and to help other people, can make a big difference in where we go from here.

Reprinted from a recent advertisement of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston, Mass.

The following is an excerpt from an editorial in the current issue of the Elks' Magazine:
"When a recent newspaper item reported that Actress Betty Hutton planned to retire from the entertainment world and devote some of her time to the Brownies, it reminded us of an incident which illustrates the excellent training this Junior Girl Scout organization gives the children.

"One day not long ago our ten-year-old daughter returned from a meeting held by Brownie Troop No. 110, bright-eyed and bubbling to tell us of an important assignment she had received from the troop leader. In her hand she held an empty, one-pound coffee can. She was to paint this tin a dark color, she explained, and letter on it in white the words: 'DO IT'. Her friend Patricia was to proceed in that same way with a second container, except that she was to letter the words: 'DID IT'. She explained the use to be made of these tins, or boxes as she called them, in the following recital:

"Well you see, daddy, the Do Its are written on slips of paper and put in here, and we take them out of the Do It box one at a time and do what it says to do and then when it's finished we put the slip into the other box with the rest of the Did Its. See?"

"What wonderful training with the simplest of equipment. There seems little question that the Brownies of Troop 110 are getting an early and meaningful start in life through objectivity in a way that all of us will warmly applaud.

"It is evident to all of us that if these children learn their lesson well and carry such training into their lives they will face the world in their adult years as happy, successful people."

WANTS A SAILOR SUIT AND COLLAR

WASHINGTON (AP)—Janet, a little girl who wears her hair in pig-tails and lives out on a rural delivery route, has posed a supply problem for the Navy.

Her letter came to the Pentagon today although she had addressed it to "U.S. Navy, Pacific Ocean."

"Dear sailors
"Send me a sailor suit with a nice collar
"Love
"Janet."

Janet, the Navy concludes, must be the "J. Roslund, R. 2, Elizabeth, Pa.," whose name appears on the envelope and whose snapshot is enclosed.

The "sailors" who run the Navy here as well as the one in the Pacific Ocean would like Janet to have that suit with the nice collar but there are a couple of obstacles. The law doesn't allow the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts to send sailor suits to anyone except the Navy's sailors. And if it did, Janet's picture indicates there would be none of that small size.

Predicting that Michigan may pass Ohio in size of population before the end of the century, the state health department says Michigan grew 7.5 per cent to 6,851,000 while Ohio, the sixth most populous state, grew only 6.7 per cent to 8,482,000 between 1950 and 1953.

48 BOYS CAUSE $50,000 DAMAGE

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Forty-eight boys, ranging in age from 9 to 16, have admitted causing an estimated $50,000 worth of damage to a shutdown textile plant here.

The Juvenile Bureau of the Camden police department said each of the boys was interviewed and admitted taking part in the vandalism which they explained away as just something to "have some fun."

The plant is owned by the Energetic Worsted Co. of Bridgeport, Pa. The company closed the plant three months ago. The damage was discovered by a real estate agent who was making a periodic check of the plant he was trying to sell.

Some 1,000 windows were smashed in the several buildings making up the property. Chairs, desk and typewriters had been hurled from the windows. Upholstered furnishings had been slashed with knives and barrels of oil had been emptied on the floors and down the stairs.

Playoff Chances Of Hershey Fading Out

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The playoff chances of the Hershey Bears in the American Hockey League were in jeopardy today as the result of a 6-2 defeat by the Cleveland Barons.

The Barons' triumph last night lifted them into a tie for the fourth and last playoff spot with the Buffalo Bisons and dropped the Bears to fifth. Two points separate the Bisons and Barons from Hershey.

Buffalo also lost a good chance to pick up ground by dropping a 7-4 decision to the cellar dwelling Providence Reds. Providence is the only team definitely out of running for the Calder Cup playoffs.

The company told the PUC it has been unsuccessful in trying to establish a commercial agency in East Greenville.

FDP WILL STAY WITH ADENAUER COALITION UNIT

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany's Free Democratic party has backed down from its threat to pull out of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's coalition government. It says it will stay—under conditions.

Even without the 47 FDP deputies, Adenauer's own Christian Democratic party has a one-vote majority in the 487-seat Bundestag (lower house). The other two parties in the coalition, the German party and the Refugee party, nominally bolster the Chancellor with 42 more votes.

The FDP decision was announced Wednesday after a meeting of the party's members in the Bundestag. The party's conditions:

1. The CDU must abandon its "dictatorial attitude" in the coalition.

2. The Chancellor must promise better cooperation among all the coalition parties on government affairs.

The conditions reflected continuing minor dissatisfaction—shared to some extent by some Christian Democrats—with the strong "one-man" rule of the forceful old Chancellor has maintained.

The FDP differences with Adenauer arose over the Saar agreement, one of the complex of Paris treaties to free and rearm West Germany in Western defense. In the parliamentary vote on the pact, 40 FDP deputies defied Adenauer and either abstained or opposed the agreement to "Europeanize" the Saar.

Despite this defection, the Saar

Former Hospital Attendants Arrested

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Three former attendants at Clarks Summit State Hospital have been arrested on charges of aggravated assault and battery in connection with the beating of mental patients at the hospital.

They are Eugene Chmiel, 24, Dickson City; Peter Duchak, 58, Scranton; and Andrew Metro, 60, of Taylor. All three were dismissed from the hospital Feb. 28 after two patients were beaten. They were arrested yesterday.

Metro was charged with beating one patient, Richard Minick, on Feb. 22. The other two were charged with beating both Minick and Felix Urbanowicz, 37, Dickson City, a patient for the past 13 years. Urbanowicz was beaten Feb. 28.

The arrests are the result of an investigation by Lackawanna County Dist. Atty. Carlton M.O'Malley.

accord squeaked through the Bundestag 263-202. The companion agreements, supported by all parties in the coalition, won by 2-1 majorities.

The opposition Socialist party announced yesterday it planned to file a suit in the German Constitutional Court challenging the legality of the Saar pact if it can collect enough signatures to compel the court to act.

Such a suit would require approval of one third of the Bundestag members. To collect that number, the Socialists would have to win over 12 members of the government coalition parties.

Should the court rule the pact unconstitutional, a two-thirds majority of both houses of Parliament would be needed to approve it. The recent Bundestag vote demonstrated that cannot be obtained.

LETTER FROM CHURCHILL USED TO URGE PACTS

PARIS (AP)—Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay cited a letter from Prime Minister Churchill to support arguments Thursday that the French Senate should approve the Paris treaties.

Pinay spoke before the Senate's Foreign Affairs and National Defense committees. He presented a letter Churchill wrote to former Premier Pierre Mendes-France several months ago. The letter warned that rejection of the treaties would amount to an abdication of France's place in big power councils.

The foreign minister did not vote for the treaties when they were approved by the National Assembly. He explained Thursday he acted for personal reasons, adding he was Premier at the time the defeated European army treaty was signed.

Pinay spoke out also against a suggestion that a prior agreement on a European arms pool be made a condition of Senate ratification of the Paris accords. An amendment to that effect was adopted by the Senate's Committee on Industrial Production Wednesday.

In Rome, the Italian Senate prepared to resume debate on the treaties. Police patrolled the streets to guard against new Fascist-Communist rioting sparked by differences over the accords.

Wednesday's Senate session was broken up by fist fight between representatives of the extreme Left and Right. The Chamber of Deputies has already approved the treaties.

Hydraulic Dredge Destroyed By Fire

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fire Thursday wrecked the city's steam hydraulic dredge, Oliver Evans, as it lay moored about 300 feet from shore in the Delaware River off Hog Island.

Four members of the crew fled to safety over a catwalk on top of an L-shaped floating pipe line joining the dredge and the shore.

Flames flashed through the two-deck superstructure of the dredge and left it a smoking mass of charred timbers and twisted metal.

The city bought the dredge from the government in 1948 for $100,000. It was reported that replacement cost might run to $750,000.

ASK WINNIE TO CALL ELECTION

LONDON (AP)—Political advisers Thursday were reported urging Prime Minister Churchill to take advantage of the Labor party split by calling a quick general election.

Churchill's Conservatives were jubilant as the showdown fight between opposition chief Clement Attlee and rebellious Aneurin Bevan spread down to Labor's field workers.

Bevan was showing strength in the grass roots. Party machines controlling the two big industrial cities of Manchester and Coventry adopted resolutions opposing any attempt to suspend or expel the fiery Welshman.

Middle-of-the-road Socialists in Parliament began drafting a harmony plea, hoping to avoid an all-out showdown. But Attlee and the party high command were reported

SEEK FUND FOR STRICKEN AREAS

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission has recommended a $100 million dollar industrial development revolving fund with special priority for distressed area communities. Commission President Victor C. Diehm disclosed today.

The project was urged in letters to Secretary of Commerce John P. Robin and Sen. Charles R. Mallery (R—Blair), and Roy Stauffer Pittston, chairman of the new commission Community Development Activities Committee.

Diehm called for creation of a state authority capable of infusing new economic life into our state government does not join up with community effort in building attractive, modern industrial plants.

Earlier, this week, Mallery appointed a three-man subcommittee determined to press their motion to suspend Bevan from membership in the party's delegation in Parliament because of his repeated defiance of the party leadership's policy decisions.

The motion is to be voted on by the Labor deputies next Wednesday. If approved, Attlee and his group are expected to demand that the Labor executive committee expel Bevan.

The 57-year-old Bevan, confined to his home with influenza, has said nothing.

However the Tribune, a weekly which voices his views, accused "a few right-wing leaders of the party" of attempting to silence him.

DEMOCRATS TRY TO HEAL LOCAL PARTY SPLIT

HARRISBURG (P)—A new Delaware County executive policy committee is in operation today as a means of resolving differences between two county factions of the Democratic party.

Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, disclosed formation of the committee yesterday after a conference with leaders of both groups.

Each faction, one the regular party organization and the other a "coalition" headed by Arthur Capiello, Drexel Hill, will have two members on the new policy making organization.

Committee To Decide
If the four-man committee can not agree on a question, Barr decided the state Democratic committee would make the decision.

"I believe this is the only fair way to meet the situation and I am hopeful of obtaining the full cooperation of all factions," Barr said in a short statement.

Two Named
"After hearing from all elements of the Democratic organization in the county I have named the new

Woman Convicted Of Perjury Again

CAMDEN, N. J. (P)—Mrs. Sylvia Neff, former secretary of a union local at the Campbell Soup Co. plant here, was convicted for the second time of perjury yesterday.

A jury of four women and eight men found Mrs. Neff guilty of falsely swearing before a grand jury when she denied collecting Communist party dues from employees of the company.

Mrs. Neff won a new trial after the earlier conviction was set aside by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

committee in a move to resolve factional cleavage."

Named to the committee were Capiello and John W. Sheehan, Drexel Hill, the county chairman and organization representative.

Each will name a second member from his own faction.

Sheehan told Barr that his group should be the only one recognized for patronage because of his election as county chairman last year by an overwhelming margin.

Three Democrats endorsed by the organization have been given state jobs in the new administration.

California has added more than 2.3 million inhabitants to its population since 1950.

STATE WILL ASK OPEN INTERFRAT EMPLOYEES FOR DATA ON DUTIES

HARRISBURG (P)—By the end of the month every state employee will receive a two-page questionnaire seeking details of his duties. His answers, the administration hopes, will form the basis for a complete reclassification of all 64,000 state jobs.

The questionnaire, now being printed, is the first step in an all-inclusive 15-month survey to be undertaken by the new administration—the state's first survey in over 20 years.

"The basic purpose is to see that jobs calling for the same duties are on the same pay scale," said Dr. James C. Charlesworth, the state's first secretary of administration.

Uniform Pay Scales
Gov. George M. Leader, in disclosing plans for the survey at his weekly news conference yesterday, said the findings would be used to "establish uniform pay scales, job qualifications, job titles and job analysis."

The Public Administration Service, a Chicago nonprofit consulting firm, will help the department make the survey.

Charlesworth said the questionnaires should be distributed "within a few weeks."

Any employee who believes he has been classified incorrectly will be given a hearing.

"We hope to have the position reclassification completed by the end of this year," Charlesworth said. "Then the hearings would begin. Our aim is to have the payroll changed over to the new job setup by June 1956."

The governor said that any person found unqualified for the job he holds will be transferred "with reduction in salary" to a job he is qualified to do.

The statistical department of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. predicts there will be no sustained upswing in the U.S. marriage rate until after 1960 when an increasing number of young people will reach marriageable age.

Winchell said an accumulation of grievances resulted in his request for a contract release.

Giardello, Pals Sued For $25,000

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A gasoline station attendant has filed a $25,000 damage suit against middleweight boxing contender Joey Giardello and two of the fighter's friends.

Howard Short, the attendant, seeks damages for alleged injuries suffered in a brawl in which Giardello and the other two, Victor Mariani and Joseph Bonadies, took part last Oct. 29.

Short asked for $5,000 for injuries and $20,000 in punitive damages as a result of the incident.

WINCHELL OFF AIR, TV
NEW YORK (P)—Walter Winchell says he's quitting ABC radio and television by next Christmas after nearly 25 years with the network.

He said last night he asked for and received a release from a contract running into six figures in a letter Feb. 10 to the American Broadcasting Co.'s directors.

The commentator expects to stay on the air either with another network or producing his own newscasts.

Winchell said an accumulation of grievances resulted in his request for a contract release.

A resolution was introduced in the House at Harrisburg Monday by Assemblyman Francis Worley which would empower the Joint State Government Commission to make a study of and offer possible amendments to the law covering the powers and requirements of the office of justice of the peace.

In response to requests, Mr. Worley said he also introduced a bill on Tuesday which would permit trial by jury upon request of summary cases appealed from a decision of the justice of the peace.

COLLEGES PICK UTILITIES AND OILS IN MARKET

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—What stocks do the big brains at the colleges buy for their ivy-covered strong boxes? The Senate Banking Committee is asking both college professors and practicing stock brokers to appraise the value of stocks in the bull market that started 18 months ago.

A look at the common stock holdings in the endowment funds of colleges might give a clue as to their assessment of various stocks.

11 Utilities, 8 Oils
The New York Stock Exchange analyzes the holdings of four Ivy League colleges in the March issue of its magazine The Exchange out today. It finds that 11 utilities and eight oils win the popularity contest at Harvard, Princeton, Yale and Columbia.

There have been shifts in the portfolios in the last two years. But in the main the colleges have proved the dictum of a leading New York broker this week in telling the senators that few institutions sell stocks once they buy them.

Twenty-seven different issues are found among the 10 largest blocks of stock held by each of the four college endowment funds. And you won't find a "penny stock" speculation in the lot.

Lots Of GE Stock
Among them the four schools hold 148,760 shares of Jersey Standard Oil with market value of around 17 million dollars. Total holdings of General Electric come to 238,088 shares (largest of any one issue) with market value around 12½ million dollars. Size

Burglar Talks Way Out Of Apartment

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The man found in an empty apartment by the landlord had a seemingly plausible explanation for having been seen going in through a window.

"I'm the husband," he said. "I just came in to air the place and I forgot my key."
So landlord Louis Freeman, who had only met the wife of his new tenants, helped the stranger replace the screen and went about his way. Later, the tenant, Mrs. Nettie Mittauer, reported $681 missing—so was the "husband."

Harney

Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall Jr. and daughter, Naomi Mae, Mrs. George Marshall Sr. and Lee Rock visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heagy and family, of Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moose and daughter, Debra, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Moose, Aspers, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moose and daughter, Sharon, and son, Wayne, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moose.

of the GE holdings is probably influenced by the 3 for 1 stock split last June.

Other large blocks held among the four are: Texas Co., nearly nine million dollars; California Standard Oil, 6½ million; Socony-Vacuum, six million; Middle South Utilities, five million; Gulf Oil, four million; Westinghouse Electric, three million.

Utilities held in addition to those named above include: North American, New England Electric, Niagara Mohawk Power, Columbia Gas, Carolina Power & Light, Ohio Edison, Southern Co., El Paso Natural Gas, Southern Natural Gas and Northern States Power.

Additional oils on the four schools' big 10 in stock holdings are: Continental, Tide Water and Atlantic Refining.

BYRD CONFIDENT U.S. SENATE WILL BEAT TAX CUT

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) conceded today he has lost a few votes in his battle to head off an income tax cut but said he still expects Senate victory.

Earlier, he had claimed 10 Democratic Senators would go along with him in his opposition to a $20 tax cut for every body. The House included the cut in a bill to extend present corporate and excise tax rates for another year.

But he conceded in an interview today that some of the 10 now would support a substitute proposal advanced by Senate Democratic leaders for a smaller tax reduction.

This plan includes other provisions which would furnish additional revenues to offset the tax cut, and this has caused the defections among his backers, Byrd said.

Will Support Substitute
Sens. Thurmond (D-SC) and Ervin (D-NC), among those on whom Byrd was counting, say they expect to vote for the substitute.

The voting showdown is expected to come next Monday or Tuesday. Floor debate, which opened yesterday, continues today.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), supporting the substitute plan, told a newsman "I think it will be a very close vote with the odds slightly against us but with our having a fighting chance to win."

Privately Democratic leaders say they hope not more than three other Democrats will vote with Byrd. This would mean they would have to pick up three Republicans to win if all Senators vote.

Sen. Williams (R-De), strongly opposed to the income tax cut, said he did not know of any Republicans whose vote had been altered by the Democratic substitute. So far only one Republican, Sen. Langer (ND), has announced for the tax reduction.

"Silly, Misleading"
Top Democrats were seeking to make use of an attack by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey

Boy, 4, Supplied Set Of False Teeth

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Four-year-old Henry Czener finally can tackle a piece of bubble gum: he left Jewish Hospital yesterday with new false teeth.

It won't be his last set. As he grows, new dentures will have to be made to fit his jaws.

Henry, whose mother had been in a concentration camp in Poland before her marriage and arrival here, suffered from what hospital dentists called rampant decay, making it impossible for him to eat most food.

Mummasburg

MUMMASBURG — Mr. and Mrs. John Plank and family have moved from near Harney to the Hellman property, formerly known as the John I. Hartman farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cullison and daughters, Patsy and Nancy, and son, Kenneth, visited Sunday in Hanover at the home of Mrs. Cullison's mother, Mrs. Bessie Riddle. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Nellie Leatherman who spent the weekend at the home of her sister, Mrs. Riddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere Keefer, who spent the winter months in Florida, have returned to their home.

yesterday on the substitute plan. Humphrey labeled it "irresponsible," and said some arguments for it are "silly and misleading."

This apparently caused some concern to Republican chieftains. Minority Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) took the floor just before the Senate cut last night, and explained Humphrey was not calling individual senators "silly" but was referring to some of the claims for the substitute.

The $20-for-everybody tax cut voted by the House would cost about $2,200,000,000 a year. The Senate Democratic substitute would cut revenues about 908 million annually. It would provide a $20 cut for each taxpayer and $10 for each dependent except that a wife would get nothing; and in general the cut would not go to families with more than $5,000 a year income.

TO ALL PROSPECTIVE USED CAR BUYERS

It would take too much space to describe the quality of each individual car listed in this ad. Most of them have had only one owner, with exceptionally low mileage. Many still have the original tires, spotless upholstery, and perfect original paint. They speak for themselves as to the care they have had.

I will not buy a used car in average condition. It must be like new. Competition is too keen to have anything other than the best to sell.

No doubt you are wondering how we can get used cars like this. Here is the answer: For quite a long time I have had a connection with an out-of-town Cadillac dealer on his used car trade-ins. The previous owners of our late model used cars are now driving new Cadillacs. I can think of no better recommendation.

11 RED STUDENT EDITORS WILL VISIT STATES

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will let 11 Russian student editors visit the United States but they'll have a hard time trying to find their own two best-known newspapers to read, Pravda and Izvestia.

The government bans both papers from general distribution in the mails in this country. The Post Office Department says only diplomats and registered foreign agents can get them.

Last year a group of undergraduate American school paper editors visited Russia. But for a year this country turned down the request of 15 Russian school editors, including the 11, to visit American schools.

30-Day Visit
Russian propagandists banged away at the United States for that and yesterday the State and Justice departments finally decided the 11 could come into the United States for 30 days. Then the Soviets asked permission for a group of Russian farmers to visit this country.

The editors range in age from 34 to 39, rather a high age to be school editors. But a State Department press officer, Henry Snydam, said they are really graduate students, editors of student publications.

Under this country's immigration laws both the State and Justice departments had to give approval. Snydam said the schools the 11 visit will be worked out by the Institute of International Education in New York.

The immigration laws and the ban on Pravda and Izvestia were both criticized Feb. 25 at a conference held under that institute's auspices by Louis M. Hacker, dean

2 Measures Boost U.S. Funds For State

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state of Pennsylvania, which now receives 42 million dollars in federal funds for highway construction annually, would receive 78 millions under a bill sponsored by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) and $95,300,000 under an administration-sponsored measure.

The administration's bill, introduced by Sen. Martin (R-Pa.) would require matching state funds of 31½ millions. Sen. Gore's bill would call for $64,900,000 in matching funds from the commonwealth. At present Pennsylvania contributes 39 millions to the federal government's 42 millions.

These figures were released yesterday in a state by state tabular breakdown compiled by the Department of Commerce.

of the School of General Studies at Columbia University, New York. Hacker planned the restrictions of the immigration laws, particularly as they affect foreign scholars and scientists, and the ban on the Russian newspapers for several reasons.

He mentioned that schools with Russian study programs have difficulty getting copies of Pravda and Izvestia which, published in Moscow, are respectively the official organs of the Russian Communist party and the Soviet government.

In a letter to the New York Times last Sunday, George F. Kennan, former American ambassador to Moscow and an authority on the Russians, criticized government authorities for making it difficult to get the two Russian papers.

Kennan served most of his State Department career under Democrats. The Post Office Department says the Eisenhower administration didn't ban the papers, that it is only carrying out a ban imposed under President Truman in 1950.

SEARCH ROCKIES FOR WRECKAGE OF TWO PLANES

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Ground searchers faced the towering hazard of snow-covered Mt. Timpanogos today in their effort to discover which—if either—of two lost planes crashed near the summit. Wreckage was reported on the mountain's northeast face.

The planes with a total of 10 persons aboard—5 in a civilian Beechcraft from Chicago and 5 in an Air Force B25 bomber from Great Falls, Mont.—have been missing since Wednesday night.

Search Wasatch Range
While the ground team plotted how to attack the mountain, Air Force and Civil Air Patrol planes resumed searching over likely areas along the Wasatch Range, in which the two ships might have gone down.

Other civilian planes scouted southwestern Wyoming.

And searchers awaited word from a ground team that had pushed into another section of the jumbled Wasatch Mountains yesterday afternoon to investigate a report a low-flying plane was heard groping through a rainstorm

Wednesday night. This was about 40 miles north of the spot where wreckage was reported seen 500 feet below the 11,750-foot summit of Mt. Timpanogos from an Air Force plane. The sound of a circling plane also had been reported in that area Wednesday night.

Sees Planes Tail

Air Force Maj. T. G. Remakus said he saw the tail of a plane sticking out of the snow on the mountain some 30 miles south of here. But he said clouds kept him from getting close enough to tell which plane it was. There was no sign of life.

Aboard the twin-engine Beechcraft were its owner Robert J. Willis, 38, Chicago plywood broker; his son Jacques, 9; pilot George Dott, 37, Wauconda, Ill.; Harry Knutson, San Francisco and Costa Rica lumberman, and H. W. Gindelle, of Pittsburgh, also in the plywood business.

The bomber carried Maj. Daniel C. Howley, 33, Springfield, Mass., pilot; 2nd Lt. Howard E. St. John Jr., 25, Bernardsville, N. J., co-pilot; A/2C Doyle Dempsey, 22, Hawkins, Tex., engineer, and two

Liner Will Resume Service On Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—The liner Queen of Bermuda, struck five days ago by 310 of her crew, is scheduled to resume passenger service between New York and Bermuda Saturday. Furness Withy & Co., Ltd., operators of the ship, said on Wednesday civilian engineers employed by the Air Force, Donald R. Cabbage, 45, of Great Falls, and Maurice McNulty, 30, a Wyoming man.

that 135 of the strikers have reported back to work and most of them already have been flown to the vessel in Bermuda. The ship will leave today for New York.

The British National Union of Seamen, which did not support the walkout, reportedly will supply replacements for the crewmen still on strike.

The U. S. traffic death toll is 7.3 deaths per hundred million miles of auto travel, the lowest in the world and 50 per cent lower than it was 15 years ago.

LEADER WILL NOT OBJECT TO VOTE ON BETTING

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (P)—Gov. George M. Leader won't stand in the way of permitting Pennsylvania voters to say whether or not they favor legalized horse race betting.

The governor's position, disclosed at his weekly news conference yesterday, is a major victory for backers of bi-partisan legislation to place the question on the ballot.

Leader renewed his opposition to legalized gambling but he said: "I don't believe a governor should interpose himself between the legislature and the people."

The Senate Law and Order Committee on Tuesday cleared for a floor vote the legislation to place the referendum on the ballot. The measure itself would not legalize parimutuel betting on horse races. Should the question meet with voters' approval, the Legislature would then be in a position of actually setting up the machinery for licensing tracks and regulating betting.

It's the first time since 1937 that the house racing question has approached a floor vote. In that year, a horse race betting bill was defeated in the House.

In the proposed referendum, Leader said, the lawmakers "honestly want to sound out the people."

Leader expressed a preference that the question—"Do you favor horse racing with legal wagering within the commonwealth?"—be placed on the May 17 primary ballot rather than for the Nov. 8 general election.

Putting the question on the November ballot, he said, would "tend to muddy the waters" in a general election when issues should be what he termed "clear cut."

Leader said he was receiving about 50 letters and telegrams daily opposing legalized gambling and "a few" for it.

SAYS BOOM IS NOW IS STAGE OF "SPECULATION"

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON (P)—A New York financier-professor said today the stock market boom has reached the speculative stage. The government should move "carefully and cautiously" toward doing something about it, he added.

"Speculation has not gone too far as yet. But there may be a grave danger that it will do so," Benjamin Graham told the Senate Banking Committee. He is chairman of the Graham-Newman Investment Corp. and a professor of finance in the Columbia University School of Business.

Graham and Gen. Robert E. Wood, chairman of the Sears Roebuck & Co. Finance Committee, were called as today's witnesses in the committee's inquiry into stock market conditions.

Graham offered some specific advice for the average investor in his prepared testimony:

"The principles of the prudent investor will require him to lighten significantly his holdings of common stocks—the precise selling policy to depend, of course, on his individual position and methods."

"For the stock speculator . . .

we think he has a 50-50 chance—or perhaps a little better—of seeing the market attain substantially higher than present heights, subject to the probability of intervening reactions."

But the chances of holding onto added profits indefinitely, Graham said, are "no better than in former bull markets—and that is none too good."

Graham said normally Congress should not "meddle with the stock market" but that the time seems now to have come to consider taking the "risky and controversial" step of intervening.

He proposed that Congress give the President authority to make changes in the rate of the capital gains tax so it could be lowered and its operations modified in an effort to increase the supply of common stock.

LUCKY DECISION

FLINT, Mich. (P)—Gordon C. Hill changed his mind at the last minute; decided not to run over a cardboard box in the road. He swerved his car sharply, barely touching the box. Out climbed 10-year-old Danny Cousineau, with only a minor foot injury.

MARCH 5-13 IS 4-H CLUB WEEK

The 4-H Clubs make a valuable four-fold contribution. They help boys and girls to learn good citizenship and good farming. They thus enrich the life of the community . . . thus, in turn, the life of our country as a whole; and they serve as a shining example to the world of how a nation can build soundly for the future. Through its youth. Our bank is proud to salute our community's 4-H Club—and 4-H Clubs everywhere—on the occasion of National 4-H Club Week.
